Central New York Wine & Jazz Fest

Wolcott, New York, June 22nd, 2011 —

Once again, the Wolcott Area Chamber of Commerce and Lions Club are gearing up for the third annual Central New York Wine & Jazz Fest. The event will be held Saturday, August 6th, 2011 from 11a.m. – 8p.m. in historic downtown Wolcott, NY. This Agra-tourism event is proud to continue promoting and showcasing Central New York's increasing popularity in the production of fine wines and artisan distillers. "It is quickly becoming a major summer experience in our region" said event chair Mike Bettis. "Almost immediately after last years festival I began receiving e-mails and calls from interested wineries, vendors and musicians who heard about the success of the fest and wanted to be part of the 2011 event."

This year over fifteen Upstate NY wineries are scheduled to offer tasting and sales amidst a backdrop of free live jazz entertainment from jazz vocalist Danielle Rausa 11a.m.-2p.m.; national jazz ensemble the Rick Holland Little Big Band 5p.m.-8p.m., regional jazz favorites the E.S.P band of Syracuse 2p.m.-5p.m., as well as local duo the Domicolo-Barlow Band 12:30-3:30 and Rachel Otto 4:00-7:00 on Main Street. In addition to great wine & music there will be over eighty high-end vendors offering superior cheeses, jewelry and other artisan creations.
